

Monique H. Bourgeois Chair in Pervasive Developmental Disorder

The Faculty of Medicine at McGill University, one of the oldest and most respected in North America, is inviting applications as part of an international search for the position of Chair in Pervasive Developmental Disorder.

This will be a faculty tenure-track position at the Associate or Full Professor level in the Department of Psychiatry. The aim of the endowed chair is to advance research and knowledge in autism and related disorders. The successful candidate will be an expert clinician who will conduct clinical and/or translational research in this area. We are seeking someone who will work across traditional departmental boundaries to establish interdisciplinary research programs and who will develop evidenced-based approaches to introduce and evaluate new practices that will enhance the diagnosis, treatment and outcomes for people with autism and related disorders in Quebec and beyond. In addition to reporting important findings to the academic community, the chair-holder should work with community organizations to disseminate information to the general public. He or she will also take part in the training of students and other professionals in the field and serve as an advocate for those who are suffering from Pervasive Developmental Disorders.

The Faculty of Medicine at McGill has a long tradition of excellence in research and teaching. The Department of Psychiatry offers a dynamic research environment with extensive inter-departmental and multi-disciplinary research collaborations. McGill University has unique research capacity in neuroscience and genetics and strong clinical and research programs at the Montreal Neurological Institute and Montreal Children's Hospital of the McGill University Health Centre. Opportunities exist to develop existing areas and build new areas of strength through recruitment. The Department participates in teaching at all levels including undergraduate, graduate and medical students, medical residents and postdoctoral and clinical fellows. Further details can be found at: <http://www.mcgill.ca/psychiatry/>

Applicants should have senior academic experience with proven teaching skills. A commitment to research with an international reputation will be an important consideration. The selected candidate must hold a M.D. or PhD, and be licensed, or eligible for licensure, in the Province of Quebec.

Interested applicants should email their curriculum vitae, including a list of publications and a statement of interest, along with the names, addresses and email addresses of three references to acadpersonnel.med@mcgill.ca within 60 days of the publication date of this posting. Please indicate 'Monique H. Bourgeois Chair, Pervasive Developmental Disorder' in the subject line. All applications should be addressed to:
